Data Retention Schedule

Kitara Group keeps records for the periods below. After the period ends the record is destroyed unless Legal and Compliance has placed a hold on it. The periods follow the Data Protection and Privacy Act, 2019 and the sector rules.

Schedule

- Customer account records: 10 years after the account is closed
- Loan files: seven years after the final repayment
- Claims files, general insurance: seven years after settlement
- Claims files, life insurance: 15 years after settlement
- Suspicious transaction reports and supporting records: 10 years
- Mobile money transaction logs: 10 years
- Staff personnel files: seven years after the employee leaves
- Recruitment records of unsuccessful candidates: 12 months
- Call centre recordings: 24 months
- CCTV footage in branches: 90 days
- Email: five years
- Board and committee minutes: permanent

Responsibilities

Each head of department names a records owner. The records owner signs the annual destruction list. IT removes backups on the same schedule. A customer who asks for deletion of personal data is told which records must be kept by law and for how long.
